

We, the residents of Harvard, Illinois, kindly request that our local authorities reconsider and amend the current regulations to allow for the keeping of backyard chickens within residential areas. We believe that permitting responsible chicken ownership will bring numerous benefits to our community and align with the growing trend across the nation.

1. Promotes Sustainable Living:

Allowing backyard chickens would encourage sustainable practices by enabling residents to produce their own fresh eggs and organic fertilizer. This promotes self-sufficiency and reduces reliance on industrial farming methods that often involve harmful chemicals.

2. Educational Opportunities:

Backyard chickens provide an excellent educational opportunity for both children and adults alike. By observing their life cycle firsthand, residents can learn about biology, animal husbandry, responsibility, and compassion towards animals.

3. Environmental Benefits:

Chickens are natural pest controllers as they eat insects such as ticks, mosquitoes, slugs, and beetles which can be a nuisance in residential areas. This helps reduce the need for chemical pesticides in our yards.

4. Healthier Food Options:

Raising backyard chickens ensures a constant supply of fresh eggs free from antibiotics or hormones commonly found in store-bought eggs. These homegrown eggs are known to have higher nutritional value with lower cholesterol levels.

5. Economic Boost:

Allowing backyard chickens can stimulate local businesses by creating demand for chicken-related supplies like feed stores or coop builders within Harvard itself.

6. Successful Precedents:

Numerous cities across Illinois have already embraced urban chicken-keeping without any significant negative impact on public health or safety concerns (sources available upon request). By following their lead, we can join this progressive movement while maintaining appropriate regulations to ensure responsible ownership practices.

7. Noise Concerns Addressed:

With proper regulation specifying limits on flock size (e.g., 4-6 hens) while prohibiting roosters due to noise concerns, we can ensure a peaceful coexistence with our neighbors.

We kindly urge the Harvard City Council and relevant authorities to review and revise the current regulations regarding backyard chickens. By doing so, we will not only enhance the quality of life for residents but also contribute to a more sustainable, educational, and environmentally friendly community.

Thank you for considering our request. Together, let's make Harvard a place where responsible chicken ownership is welcomed and celebrated!

Hebron- Gene (clerk)
Zero complaints.
Handful of residents with chickens

Spring Grove- Sandy
Zero complaints.

Naperville- Sheryl Musato (code enforcement)
Population 115,000
Several hundred have permits for chickens.
She noted people take pride in their coops.
NO issues with hens running at large.
ONE complaint and it was for a person who keeps chickens as support animals with proper documentation but does not meet city ordinance or have city permit.
ZERO complaints about permitted residents.
Positive experiences from residents have been noted

Evanston- Ellen Goldman
Population 77,500
29 people have coops
ZERO complaints

Chicago- "Miss B"
Population of over 2 million
NO permits required
NO major complaints
ZERO complaints within last 6 months per the lady I spoke with.

Delavan- T Welsh- Building and zoning
Population 8,500
24 people have permits
ZERO complaints about people with permits *only complaints filed are against people without permits*

Rolling Meadows- Dan Streit (code enforcement for Hebron was previously employed with Rolling Meadows)
Population- 24,000
Only complaint was if someone tried to sneak in a rooster (which rarely happened).
He says "People try to complicated an uncomplicated situation. People who pay for a permit are not trying to get their permit revoked or fined. If its passed people will see it really isn't an issue."

Name	City	State	Postal Code	Country	Commented Date	Comment
Angela Moran	Woodstock	IL	60098	US	2023-08-23	"We are a rural farm town and as long as we keep chickens contained in a sufficient size coop and care for & clean as it can be for a coop we should have the right to fresh eggs"
Jessica Helmeid	Harvard	IL	60033	US	2023-08-23	"Agreed! Thanks for signing! Please share with friends!"
Sonja Jones	Harvard	IL	60033	US	2023-08-23	"I would like to raise my own food."
Jessica Helmeid	Harvard	IL	60033	US	2023-08-23	"Same, Sonja! Thanks for signing! Hope to see you at the meeting on Sept. 26th!"
Mark Denning	Elmhurst	IL	60120	US	2023-08-23	"I think we should all be able to raise chickens. Eggs are an incredible food!"
Kayla Abernathy	Chicago	IL	60682	US	2023-08-25	"People should mind their own business about what others do on their property. As long as the chickens are properly contained and cared for it's a whole lot of of none ya."
Angela Moran	Woodstock	IL	60086	US	2023-08-26	"Harvard is a rural town and should be allowed chickens for fresh eggs. Angela Standish"
Kira Zarate	Harvard	IL	60033	US	2023-08-26	"I want to have chickens . I had chickens at my old house and loved them Saved so much money on eggs and my children loved it too!"
Jill Monard	Harvard	IL	60033	US	2023-08-29	"I think having backyard chickens would allow residents the ability to have a sustainable egg supply."
Margaret Wisner	Harvard	IL	60033	US	2023-08-29	"I believe the residents in Harvard should be able to responsibly raise backyard chickens. I have friends that do this, and they absolutely adore their chickens!"
Veronica Micek	Capron	IL	61012	US	2023-09-01	"You're fighting for something you want and I like chicken! :-) Good luck!"
alexio melesio	Harvard	IL	60033	US	2023-10-06	"I want too"
